Westminster College of the Arts (WCA) offers Rider students the opportunity to study intensively in the arts - whether that plan includes a lifetime career in the arts or personal expression and enrichment found through its exploration. Students can choose from a wide variety of undergraduate and graduate majors including arts administration, dance, fine arts, music education, music theatre, organ performance, piano, music, popular music culture, sacred music, theatre, theory and composition, voice performance and other areas of concentration. See the links below for specific information pertaining to each of the schools in WCA.
