Acting for Film, Television and Theatre (BFA) Major Requirements

(81 credits)

BA in Theatre, BA in Dance, BFA in Musical Theater, and BFA in Acting programs within the Department of Performing Arts require their majors to earn a grade of C or higher to pass all courses required of their respective majors (except General Education Classes). A grade of C- or lower requires the student to repeat the course. Students may only repeat major-required courses once. A student failing to achieve a grade of C or higher on the second attempt will be dismissed from the major.

Students are afforded one opportunity to appeal the dismissal to the Chair. Such an appeal must include a plan for success, at least one letter of support from a full-time faculty member within the degree program, and any relevant supporting documentation from the Academic Success Center or the Dean of Students' Office that the student may choose to include.

The Chair, in collaboration with program faculty, reserves the right to deny the appeal. In such a case, the program dismissal stands. Should the appeal succeed, the student has one final opportunity to achieve a grade of C or higher for the course in question, after which no further appeal shall be afforded.

Students in the BFA in Acting for Film, Television and Theatre program must pass the sophomore review to remain in good standing in the major.

¹ Students who are going to L.A. do not need to register for this course, it will be completed while in L.A.

² If spending semester in L.A., students will register for 9 credits of FTV 399 and THE 410

THE 101 Beginning Acting 3 Credits

Students will learn and practice applying the fundamentals of acting in order to give them a greater appreciation for the work of actors. This course is designed for any students interested in learning the basics of acting. It is not for Acting and Musical Theatre majors.

THE 103 The Authentic Instrument I: Introduction to Performance Skills 3 Credits

Through the Alexander Technique and other methodologies, actors gain awareness of personal habits and begin to find their authentic, truth-telling voice and body—a dynamic and expressive instrument to serve them in any medium.

THE 104 The Authentic Instrument II: Developing the Imaginative Performer 3 Credits

Continuing from THE 103, actors explore psycho-physical techniques (e.g. Michael Chekhov, Viewpoints, Laban) to develop the actor's imagination. The class culminates in a public presentation using the tools that have been cultivated in Authentic Instrument I & II.

Prerequisite(s): THE 103.

THE 105 Theatre History to 1700 3 Credits

The history of theater from the primitive time through the Baroque era. Examines major plays and playwrights, emphasizing the Greek, Roman, Medieval, and Elizabethan eras. This course counts towards the fulfillment of the Disciplinary Perspectives element of the CLAS general education curriculum.

THE 106 Theater History Since 1700 3 Credits

The history of theater from the Restoration to the present. Examines major plays and playwrights, emphasizing the Restoration, Romantic, and Realistic movements. This course counts towards the fulfillment of the Disciplinary Perspectives element of the CLAS general education curriculum.

THE 107 Acting I: Intro to Acting 3 Credits

Students will learn and practice the fundamental techniques and skills for authentic acting: pursuit of objectives, struggles against obstacles, and use of various tactics.

THE 110 Acting II: Scene Study 3 Credits

Students will continue to apply fundamentals from Acting I while learning how to read a script for actor clues, searching for and applying given circumstances to scene work, and monologues. Pre-requisite: THE 107 with a minimum grade of C.

THE 111 Theatre Lab 0 Credits

This class serves as a forum for students to cultivate practical professional skills. Through seminars, guest speakers and master classes, this lab will give the students necessary tools to enter the professional theater. Theater majors must meet the weekly attendance and participation requirements during every semester up to a total of six.

THE 115 Stagecraft 3 Credits

The theory and practice of construction and rigging of stage scenery is offered. Emphasis is on actual productions and road show set-ups. One lecture and two labs per week.

THE 116 Stagecraft Practicum 1 Credits

Work in the various shops and stages specializing in different areas such as carpentry, scenic painting, lighting and electrics, costumes and props, assisting main stage productions under the supervision of the design or technical staff.

Prerequisite(s): THE 115.

THE 118 Visual Imagination 3 Credits

Introduction to the visual world of theater design. Visual examples, physical exercises and handcraft of composition and style, with dramatic input and meaning. The course explores how to translate ideas in a dramatic text into a visual context.

THE 120 Theater Appreciation 3 Credits

By exploration of dramatic literature, conclusions are drawn as to man's relationship to his particular period, style, political, social, and psychological environment. Appreciation of the theatrical event is included. This course counts towards the fulfillment of the Disciplinary Perspectives element of the CAS general education curriculum.

THE 126 Acting for Camera 1 3 Credits

Focuses on the craft and artistry of acting in television and film. Examination of TV production and the styles needed for work in various media will be discussed. Physicalization, simplicity, listening, marking and other technical requirements will be explored. Staging involving different camera angles will be rehearsed. The emphasis of this class is on adapting the performance to the special needs of the camera.

Prerequisite(s): THE 107 with a minimum grade of "C".

THE 127 Theatre Production 1 Credits

Students rehearse and perform roles in a play produced by the department and directed by a member of its faculty.

THE 190 Production I 1 Credits

Students carry out a technical theatre crew position for one or more theatre, musical theatre or dance productions during the semester of course registration. May be repeated seven times, for a total of eight credits.

THE 201 Devised Theatre 3 Credits

Devised theatre is a process in which a whole creative team – from actors to technicians - develop a new work collaboratively. Students will create an original production inspired by a theme, topic, poem, or circumstance using multimedia, interviews, and other methods and build them through collaborative workshops and rehearsals.

THE 206 American Theatre History 3 Credits

The history of the American theater from the colonial period to the present, emphasizing dramatic scripts and theatrical conventions. Examines important playwrights, theorists, and practitioners representative of each period of American history, emphasizing the 19th and 20th centuries.

THE 207 Contemporary Theatre: Text and Context 3 Credits

The course will engage in exploring the art of contemporary dramatic literature and theatre practices. The scripts studied will reflect the complexity and diversity of contemporary society in various places around the world. Through an examination of a diverse body of scripts, the student will gain a better understanding of the possibilities inherent in the dramatic form, as well as the context of these works in society.

THE 214 Theatre for Social Change 3 Credits

Theatre for social change practitioners utilize storytelling and community-rooted creative practices to address issues such as trauma, systemic inequity, and identity-based stress. This course explores influential texts, artists, and organizations in the field of Theatre for Social Change. You'll reflect on the issues that matter to you; your identity markers; ethics, responsibility, reciprocity, and power; working within oppressive systems; and theory versus practice. Your primary project in this class will be to plan a Theatre for Social Change project or program. Implementing this project is beyond the scope of this class and is not required. Rather, by envisioning a program, you'll critically examine these issues and gain an appreciation for the opportunities and challenges in facilitating Theatre for Social Change.

THE 215 Introduction to Theatrical Lighting and Sound 3 Credits

This course will introduce students to basic lighting and sound principles and how those integrate into a theatrical performance. The main focus of the class will be analysis and application of lighting and sound equipment commonly used in live performance and how that equipment functions and is installed. The class will also touch on the design process, script analysis, and lighting color theory. These objectives will be achieved through in-depth lectures, class discussions, and hands-on demonstration sessions.

THE 216 Introduction to Scenic Construction 3 Credits

This course will expose students to reading construction drawings, construction techniques, generating material lists, problem-solving, and material and time management as related to scenic construction. A shop participation requirement will allow students to apply course objectives within a real-time production schedule and construction environment.

THE 219 Stage Management 3 Credits

Provide necessary tools to get started as a production stage manager (PSM), including management, leadership, communication and organizational skills. Providing guidelines to prepare production paperwork. Overview of the relationship between the PSM and other production personnel.

Prerequisite: THE 190 (with minimum grade of C).

THE 220 Movement for the Actor I 3 Credits

This course is an introduction to movement training methodologies, and emphasizes physical awareness and expressivity as it relates to development of character.

Prerequisite(s): THE 104 and THE 110 with a minimum grade of C.

THE 221 Voice for the Actor 1: Foundations of Speech 3 Credits

Focuses on the exploration of the basic principles of vocal production and cultivating the natural expressivity of the voice. Classwork is based upon the classic progression of voice exercises of Kristin Linklater.

Prerequisite(s): THE 107 with a minimum grade of C; restricted to BFA in Acting for Film, Television and Theatre.

THE 222 Voice for the Actor 2: Speech & Dialects 3 Credits

Focuses on the exploration of the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA) and the use of the IPA in learning dialects (including Standard Neutral American) for the stage.

Prerequisite(s): THE 221 with a minimum grade of C.

THE 224 Stage Make Up 3 Credits

Basic application of make up artistry and techniques for the stage. How it can help build a character, and how to apply to self and others.

THE 226 Drafting for the Stage 3 Credits

Covers essential drafting language for staged productions. Drafting of ground plans, sections, elevations, and renderings by hand and with computers.

Prerequisite(s): THE 118.

THE 227 Properties and Scenic Painting 3 Credits

Covers general aspects of scenic painting and props for the stage. Hands on exercises, needs and challenges of each area, how work is usually accomplished in the professional world. Explore different textures, materials and how to combine them.

Prerequisite(s): THE 115 or THE 118.

THE 228 Projection Design 3 Credits

In this course students will learn the basics of video editing software and its application to the performing arts. It will provide them with a general understanding of the needs for projection design, visual possibilities, explore the reasons to use video or projection in a production and its most effective applications within theatrical production limitations.

Prerequisite(s): THE 115, THE 118.

THE 229 Movement for the Actor II 3 Credits

This course is a continuation of study in movement training methodologies (Alexander Technique, Viewpoints, Laban). It will emphasize developing physical awareness and expressiveness as it relates to the development of character work. It will also continue the further cultivation of awareness of habitual psycho-physical patterns that inhibit students in their professional development.

Prerequisite(s): THE 220, THE 221.

THE 240 Script Analysis 3 Credits

This course provides students with a technique for analyzing a theatrical script in terms of its theatrical requirements and aesthetic qualities. Students will use critical research and develop the abilities to write and speak clearly about dramatic literature, the requirements of production, and the experience of performance.

Prerequisite(s): THE 101 or THE 107 with a minimum grade of C.

THE 250 Introduction to Costume Construction 3 Credits

This course will introduce students to basic costume construction methods and alteration skills used by professional costume shops and costume houses to create theatrical costumes. Students will complete several projects, covering hand and machine sewing, cutting, fabric identification, and will also learn how to use home and commercial patterns to cut out garments and simple patterning and draping techniques. Students will also get practical experience by assisting the costume designer and/or shop manager in supporting the needs of the current productions and will have experience taking measurements, fitting and the alteration of actual costumes.

THE 260 History of Style and Decor 3 Credits

This class is a survey of elements, furnishings, decorative motifs and trends in architecture, decor and fashion, starting with prehistory and moving through the early part of the 21st century. It is intended to be a visual survey of the major "periods" of both decor and fashion and is intended to help theatre artists to develop an understanding of visual history.

THE 290 Production II 1 Credits

Students carry out an intermediate level technical theatre crew position for one or more theatre, musical theatre, or dance productions during the semester of course registration. Intermediate level technical theatre positions are supervisory positions or assistants to department heads which include, but not limited to, assistant to a designer, Stage Manager, Wardrobe Supervisor, and Master Carpenter.

Prerequisite(s): SO standing; 3 credits of THE 190.

THE 310 Acting III 3 Credits

Building upon the skill sets learned in Acting I and II, students will learn how to utilize both interior and exterior analysis of characters while being introduced to a variety of techniques stemming from the Stanislavsky method. Techniques will then be applied through scene and monologue performances in class. Pre-requisite: THE 110 with a minimum grade of C.

THE 311 Acting IV 3 Credits

Students will learn and practice performance techniques that explore a variety of theatrical styles, primarily focused on styles that have a heightened form and/or language.

Prerequisite(s): THE 310 with a minimum grade of C.

THE 312 The Arts Abroad 1-3 Credits

A short-term trip abroad that includes a critical study of local & regional arts and culture. Students are required to attend all performances, guided tours, and classes before and after the trip. A travel fee is required. Travel sites and artistic disciplines may vary year to year. May be taken more than once for credit.

Prerequisite(s): Permission of instructor.

THE 313 Voice for the Actor 3: Voice Acting 3 Credits

Students will learn and practice the foundational requirements needed to audition for a variety of voiceover projects including commercial, animation, audio drama, podcasts, video games, audio books, and other forms of voice acting.

Prerequisite(s): THE 222 with a minimum grade of C.

THE 315 Acting for the Camera 2 3 Credits

This course is a continuation of the study of acting for the camera.

Prerequisite(s): THE 126 with a minimum grade of "C".

THE 317 Scenic Design 3 Credits

The study and application of design principles as related to the stage. Incorporates the design process, decor research, styles, materials, and construction technology.

Prerequisite(s): THE 118.

THE 318 Stage Lighting Design 3 Credits

The theory and practice of stage lighting as utilized in concept, dance, and theatre. Considers the nature of light, controlling light, color theory, electricity, electrical safety, and lighting design.

Prerequisite(s): THE 115 or THE 118.

THE 319 Costume Design 3 Credits

Introduction to tasks, skills and expertise of costume design and costuming techniques, relationship with other creative production and cast members. Students will create sketches and develop basic construction plans. Develop familiarity with fabrics, patterns, common challenges in costume design.

Prerequisite(s): THE 115 (for other Theatre majors) or THE 118 (for Design and Technology majors).

THE 320 The Business of Theatre and Acting 3 Credits

This course will delve into the non-artistic side of a theatre career, addressing topics such as budgeting, artist statements, grant writing, contracts, unions, networking, etiquette, taxes, theatre company structures, agents, managers, and how to navigate the entertainment market. The course will also touch on strategies for physical and mental self-care with the goal of providing a bedrock for both a successful and sustainable career.

THE 325 Sound Design 3 Credits

Introduction to sound design and its diverse use and practice for the staged productions, e.g. plays, musicals, operas and dance.

Prerequisite(s): THE 115.

THE 329 Movement for the Actor III 3 Credits

This course is a continuation of study in movement training methodologies focusing on continued development of expressivity, ease, dynamics and authenticity in character development.

Prerequisite(s): THE 229.

THE 345 Practical Collaboration for the Stage 3 Credits

How does great theatre get created? Who puts all the individual pieces together to go from an idea for a production to an amazing performance in front of an audience? Professionals recognize that it can only happen with collaboration. While the whole is made up of many individual parts, only together can we create a unified vision that brings the dream into reality. This course is designed to give students the tools and skills necessary to prosper in the collaborative theatre environment. We will work together to understand the structure of leadership when working collaboratively. We will discuss methods to achieve a unified vision during preparation, planning, production, and presenting. And we will address challenges that may arise and how to overcome them. Through a series of activities and projects, you will prepare yourself to create theatre in collaboration with other artists.

Prerequisites: Completion of at least 30 credits.

THE 390 Production III 1 Credits

Students carry out an advanced level technical theatre crew position for one or more theatre, musical theatre, or dance productions during the semester of course registration. These positions include, but are not limited to, Designer, Production Stage Manager, Props Master, and Technical Director. This course may be taken up to three times for credit.

Prerequisite(s): JR or SR standing; 2 credits of THE 290 and related management/design course or permission of Instructor.

THE 393 Theatre-Makers: Process and Production 3 Credits

This seminar-style class explores the myriad of positions that theatre artists may pursue to become the theatre-makers of the 21st Century.

THE 400 Directing for the Stage I 3 Credits

The technique of play directing and production management. Lectures present aesthetic and theoretical concepts that are explored in workshops.

Prerequisite(s): THE 107 with a minimum grade of C.

THE 401 Directing for the Stage II 3 Credits

This course is designed to provide students with an opportunity to practice and discuss the art of directing, building upon the fundamentals of directing studied in THE 400: Directing I. Further exploration of directing challenges and application of artistic vision is accomplished through the direction of scenes and short scripts.

Prerequisite(s): THE 400.

THE 410 Advanced Performance Workshop 3 Credits

An opportunity to work an entire semester on a specific style or period of theatre, e.g., Shakespeare, farce, Readers' Theater.

Prerequisite(s): THE 107, THE 110.

THE 411 Advanced Performance Online Workshop 3 Credits

An opportunity to work an entire term on a specific style or period of theatre that is most conducive to online instruction.

Prerequisite(s): THE 107, THE 110.

THE 440 Acting V: Auditions 3 Credits

Students will learn to find, develop and perform audition material in preparation for entering the acting profession. This will include developing a professional website and resume.

Prerequisite: THE 311 with grade of C or better.

THE 460 Senior Theatre Showcase I 1 Credits

This course is a senior level experience for BFA acting students, and acts as a bridge between life in the university and life as a professional actor. Through this course the students will, in collaboration with the teacher, compile and put together a showcase to introduce the students to casting and agent professionals in the industry. This is the first of two showcase preparation courses the student must complete in order to participate in the Spring semester showcase. The second course is THE 465: Senior Theatre Showcase II. Permission of instructor required.

THE 465 Senior Theatre Showcase II 1 Credits

This course continues the Showcase preparation work begun in THE 460. Class meetings will occur in the last two to three weeks of the Spring semester and will culminate in a showcase performance in New York City in front of industry professionals.

Prerequisite: THE 460.

THE 490 Independent Research and Study 1-4 Credits

Students may pursue a special topic for which they have prepared through prior course work. Only one project may be scheduled in a semester. The project may involve 1-4 Credits. Approval of the faculty sponsor, department chair, and dean required prior to enrollment.

Prerequisite(s): junior or senior standing, good academic standing.

THE 491 Internship in Theater 1-12 Credits

Provides junior or senior theatre majors the practical experience of working within a professional theater environment. Students must be sponsored by a theatre professor. For each academic credit, interns must work 48 hours for the semester, or approximately 3.7 hours each week.

Prerequisite(s): permission of instructor.

THE 495 Special Topics in Theatre 3 Credits

Intensive study of a particular topic in the theatre world not typically covered in other courses.

THE 496 Senior Internship 6-12 Credits

THE 498 Senior Capstone 3 Credits

The senior capstone is intended for technical theatre students in their final year. Depending on the required abilities, students will be able to design sets, lights, costumes, props or sound for a mainstage show at Rider University, do research on topics related to technical Theatre, internships outside Rider University or work on projects that will improve the use of facilities, storage or equipment for Theater and Dance Department.

THE 499 Senior Honors Program 3 Credits

A senior honors program may be submitted in partial fulfillment of requirements for graduation with honors in fine arts. Honors work is limited to those departmental majors with a GPA of 3.5 in fine arts courses and cognates. The program, to be planned under the direction of a faculty advisor, will represent a culmination of demonstrated excellence in a specific area of fine arts. Candidates for honors in fine arts must be approved by the department chairperson and the faculty.
